

Sabena Hijacking: My Version

Sometimes Reality Is More Gripping Than Fiction

Sabena Hijacking: My Version is a powerful, suspenseful docudrama based on previously undiscovered audio recordings of the pilot of Flight 571, the passenger plane hijacked by four "Black September" members of the Palestine Liberation Organization on its way from Brussels to Tel Aviv on 8 May 1972.

The film shares the untold story of what exactly took place on the flight throughout the 30 hours of nerve-racking captivity with archive material, dramatic reenactments, and interviews with those in charge of the Israeli rescue efforts – including current Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, former Prime Ministers Ehud Barak and Shimon Peres – as well as an interview with the only surviving hijacker, Therese Halsa, who was just 18 at the time.

The result is a captivating, fast-paced film full of suspense, which poses significant political and historical questions that have shaped the Israel of today.

Genre: Docu-drama

Duration: 1x90'

Production Company: United King and DNA Productions

Broadcaster: Keshet 12 (Israel)

Created by: Nati Dinnar

WATCH MORE >

