How Far Will They Go For Love

How Far asks one key question: would you be able to leave your entire life behind in order to give true love a chance?

Three young men have each made it big in a faraway country, building fantastic lives for themselves in exotic locations. But they feel that they're missing the most important thing – love. And each of them believes that only by heading back to their homeland can they truly find the love they seek, with a person who has the same roots as they do.

So they're embarking on a home-coming journey to find “the one”, the woman who is willing to leave everything behind to join them for a new life on the other side of the world - or who will make them want to leave their amazing lives behind and head back home.

Their time together will be intense, and some budding relationships will be destined for a breakup. In the emotional finale, when each of our single men chooses the one woman he wants to be with, these brand-new couples must face one important life-changing decision. Exactly how far will they be prepared to go to fulfill their romantic dreams?

In this global search for love, anything can happen...
