

Clues

They Know What They're Looking For, But Have No Clue What They're About To Find

When one man vanishes from the face of the earth, these two vastly different women in his life must learn to work together to reveal the truth in this fresh, funny and original detective drama.

Avi Fein may be the successful owner of one of the country's top private investigation firms, but he's made his way to the top thanks to two women – his rich spoiled wife Dana, a famous attorney's daughter with impeccable connections; and his street-smart lover Hanit, officially his secretary, but actually the woman doing the real investigative work while he takes the credit.

One morning, Dana wakes up to find her BMW impounded, bank accounts emptied, and her husband nowhere to be seen. Hanit discovers that not only is her boss and lover missing, but his wife is also determined to take over the business without a clue about how it works.

With Avi's disappearance leaving them penniless, this unlikely duo throw themselves into all manner of detective work to not only survive, but to also discover the truth. They may have been sharing a man, but with Avi's fate hanging over them, and the secret of Hanit's affair simmering in the background, can they ever rely on each other?

Offering broad audience appeal to both men and women, Clues is packed with gripping investigations and fast-paced action, set against a background of smart female relationships, lively comedy and sex appeal.

Genre: Drama

Duration: 9x60'

Production Company: Artza Productions

Broadcaster: Keshet 12 (Israel)

Created by: Ruti Rudner

WATCH MORE >

