

Prisoners of War

The Smash Hit Israeli Drama That Spawned Multi-award-winning Homeland

Prisoners of War is a gripping drama about three Israeli soldiers captured 17 years ago while on a secret mission with their unit in Lebanon. After prolonged negotiations for their freedom, two soldiers return to Israel alive, the third comes home in a coffin.

The end is where the story begins - while both soldiers reacclimatize and settle back into their lives, a secret investigation is also unfolding - into the truth surrounding their capture and the many discrepancies in the soldiers' stories.

As the investigators get closer to finding what really happened to them in captivity, the two soldiers become even more determined to hide the biggest secret of all.

Recently voted the best international TV show of the last decade by the New York Times, Prisoners of War has been sold to over 65 territories, including the US (Hulu) and the UK (Sky Arts), while the format has been adapted in the US (Showtime's Homeland) and in India (Star TV's POW: Bandi Yuddh Ke).

Genre: Drama

Duration: S1 10x60', S2 14x60'

Production Company: United Studios of Israel and Tender Productions

Broadcaster: Keshet 12 (Israel)

Created, Written and Directed by: Gideon Raff

WATCH MORE >

