The Baker & The Beauty (US)

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN A BAKER BOY FALLS FOR AN INTERNATIONAL SUPERMODEL?

Adapted from the Israeli format, ABC's compelling modern day fairy-tale takes viewers on a flavor-filled adventure between humble everyman Daniel and international superstar Noa.

Noa (Nathalie Kelley) has it all: she's one of the most recognizable women in the world, a beautiful heiress, an international supermodel and – up until now – one half of a Hollywood power-couple. Daniel (Victor Rasuk) is a modest baker who still lives with his parents and works at the family bakery in Miami.

A chance encounter at a fancy restaurant where Daniel is on a date with his long-time girlfriend, Vanessa, and Noa is avoiding public speculation about a break-up from her Hollywood lover – leads to unexpected sparks and an even more unlikely love story.

Can their love survive her jet-setting lifestyle, her overbearing agent, his unworldly family, both their exes and the media? Brought together by happenstance, their unexpected love story transforms their lives and the lives of their vastly disparate families.
