

The Farmer Wants A Life

As His Kids Come Up With Crackpot Schemes To Keep A Roof Over Their Head, He Just Wants An Easy Life

The Farmer Wants A Life is a contemporary sitcom dealing with a challenging family financial situation, all wrapped up in a delightful-yet-cynical family farce.

Arik is a hardworking “salt of the earth” farmer whose avocados are no longer the cash crop they used to be. Having raised his family and sent them out into the world to make their own way, Arik suddenly finds himself inheriting his children’s personal and financial woes when they all come scurrying back, seeking home comforts.

With his family reunited and living once more under his roof, Arik must now face the harsh reality of supporting them all when every day seems to bring a new way, he could lose his business and his home. The farm quickly becomes a tense pressure cooker as Arik and his family attempt to devise one crackpot scheme after another to help them survive.

Will this dysfunctional and yet lovable family be able to work together to save their home and the family business?
