Personal Stories Of Bravery, Resilience and Trauma

Collectively entitled UVDA: Inside Israel – This is War, the initial selection of eight films is being created in response to requests from KI's clients for in-depth, locally-produced news reports covering the October 7th massacres and kidnappings in Israel by Hamas, and the resulting Israel–Hamas war.

Varying in length from 20 to 45 minutes, this package of films includes filmmaker Itai Anghel's 1x20' report Kibbutz Nir Oz which was filmed a week after Hamas' horrific attack on Israel's south-west. Here, Itai visits one of the communities hit hardest, where 25% of Kibbutz Nir Oz's residents were kidnapped or murdered by Hamas. With the help of the kibbutz's CCTV and victims' testimonials, Itai gives viewers a first-hand view of what happened on that Saturday morning of October 7th.

Featuring in-depth documentary films, profile interviews, and investigative since 1993 with Ilana Dayan at its helm, UVDA is recognized at home and abroad for its ability to present complex issues in a balanced and clear way, winning every Israeli journalistic broadcast award year-on-year and some international ones too (International Emmy ® News Award Winner 2000: Kapo, Best Documentary; International Emmy ® News Award Nominee 2023: Last Stop Before Kyiv, Current Affairs).
