

Red Alert

Red Alert is a riveting four-part scripted series depicting the lived experiences of ordinary people turned heroes during the 2023 Hamas attacks in Israel.

This powerful drama portrays the largest and deadliest massacre in Israel's history, when more than 1,163 concert-goers, families, and individuals near the Gaza border were murdered and 251 kidnapped.

Developed with survivors and victims' families, this cinematically-shot series weaves human stories into a riveting narrative of the devastating terrorist attack that turned southern Israel into a war zone, testing humanity and forging heroism through chaos.

Created by Lior Chefetz and co-created by Ruth Efroni, the series is produced by Academy Award-nominated Lawrence Bender (Pulp Fiction, Inglourious Basterds) and Bender Brown Productions with award-winning Green Productions (Golda, Cinema Sabaya). Red Alert brings together world-class talent in a game-changing international co-production.

Keshet International is the distributor of the series, which is available for license non-exclusively outside the US. Red Alert has been sold to global streaming giant Paramount+. Set to premiere on Keshet 12 on October 4th and to air globally on October 7th, two years to the day of the actual events.
